VOLUME XXXVI.

OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1901.

NUMBER 85.

Bridge and Beach Cooking Stoves.

Firebacks warranted 15 years. Even bakers, fuel savers and made of the best material. We have held them 18 years and not a FIREBACK burned out of any of them in that time.

Heating Stoves

At 30 per cent discount from marked price, now is your chance for bargains in Heating Stoves.

We will have a large stock of Hardware, Implements, Wire Fencing, &c. for 1901. We want your trade, "Good Goods At Fair Prices," is our motto. Thanking all for past favors,

T. L. PRICE, Hardware, Oregon, Mo.

—Get vaccinated.

—Dr. Simmons—Residence third door south of opera house.

—Mrs. Charles Anselm is visiting in Mound City this week.

—Say! Have you seen that New Columbian Automatic Stock Food? House and one lot for sale. Part on time. Reasonable price, apply to William Kaucher.

—Dr. Findley tells us a girl baby came to the home of William Shields and wife, on the 8th.

—Messadams Stout, Nipher, Wilson, Leverich and Sig Noland are all quit with the lagrippe.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery have about recovered from a long and tedious struggle with the lagrippe.

—Several of Holt county's chicken fanciers are attending the Kansas City poultry show this week.

—George P. Feuerbacher, of Avoca, Nebraska, was over last week, visiting relatives and numerous friends.

—Sam, the son of John Smith, who used to live in Corning, is reported to be in a serious condition at his home in Mulhall, Okla.

—A ladies' pocket book and card case, combined, was lost on the Forbes Oregon road. Finder will please leave at this office, or with N. F. Murray.

—Jehu Lamb was summoned by telegram, on Saturday last, to the bedside of his son Harry, who is seriously ill with pneumonia at Clinton, Arizona.

—Ucle Jimmie Bradford, of Clay township, who is now about 77 years of age, was at ending creek last week. We were glad indeed to see him looking so well and healthy.

—The people of Rock Port and surrounding country have raised a stock company and will build and operate a cannery factory. The capital stock, $11,000, has all been subscribed.

—Hello, No. 20! That's the one you want for that celebrated "Humboldt" Flour, Monkey Coffee, or anything in the staple or fancy grocery line.

—ICE The Zachman-Evans Co. will continue the ice business of J. N. Zachman & Co. as heretofore. Parties wanting ice for private use, can get it at the point as soon as it is thick enough to cut.

—For Sale—Eight thoroughbred, Poland-China male hogs, old enough for service. Satisfaction guaranteed. Address, J. J. Ballou, Oregon, Mo. or call at farm, one mile east of Monarch school house.

—The Columbian Hog and Cattle Powder has stood the test of time, and Holt County Agent York is receiving daily shipments of this powder, from Holt County and Forest City. We don't sell to everybody but we are selling to 85 per cent of the stock men in the county.

—I have perfected arrangements whereby I am in a position again to loan eastern money at a low rate of interest on well located, high bottom or prairie farms. If in need of a loan, write or call on me at Oregon, Missouri.

—When I was younger than I am now I was quite an equestrian, said Dan. (Senator) Williams, to a crowd of his companions the other day. "And the other day I thought I would take a horseback ride just to see how it went. I had not been on a horse's back for a long time, and I took quite a long jump. It was fine while it lasted, but let me tell you, the next morning my legs felt like a pair of compasses, and I did not get the soreness out of them for a week. The next time I go horseback riding it will be in a buggy."

—The preliminary hearing of Mrs. Addie Richardson, held for the murder of her husband, Frank Richardson, who was shot and killed in the doorway of the mechanical department, and its general get up tells us that he is still a good "print."

—George Burnett, better known as Daniel Boone, (Tom Frey), and Mr. Mange, of the Davis farm, near Forest City, went out Wednesday last week on a fox hunt, with their famous hounds, Tribby, Queenie and Roger. They had a pretty chase, just south of town, capturing a fine red fox, with white tip on end of tail. Some of our people are inclined to think that they took the fox, enabling the hounds to catch it, but we have the word and honor of Daniel Boone (George Burnett), that the hounds captured the fox and square, and we guess it will have to go to that.

—This is the "white season" with the dry goods store. All of them have dozens of white garments for women, that many feminine fingers are plucking eagerly, pulling and hauling at dainty lingerie. Just why summer underwear and flimsy, dainty feminine garments should go on sale at this particular time of year is something that few can explain. It has been our custom, not only here, but everywhere, where this kind of stock is carried. There is nothing more unseasonable in the deal of winter than maulin and lawn lingerie, but the women will buy bargains at any time—it is the Madam Tooles that is in them we presume.

—Twenty-five Northwestern Missouri investors in independent telephone properties met in St. Joseph last week and formed an organization for the purpose of establishing harmony in rates and rules. The name adopted was the Missouri River Telephone Association, and H. E. Ralston, of Maryville, was chosen president. G. A. Haynes, of Savannah, vice president, and L. N. Fry, of Grant City, secretary and treasurer. The president and officers and F. S. Travis and J. T. Norman constitute the executive committee, and thus the combines go right along combining under the very nose of the attorney-general. But then he couldn't smell a decomposed corpse within two feet, if it was labelled "combine."

—Suspended in space was the landlady of the Hotel Woodland the other day. Her help was on the roof of the hotel "showing" from the roof. She went up to see how the work was progressing, and to reach the roof a ladder must be climbed, and getting to the top round she was unable to get out upon the roof and look after the work. Only a moment, and she felt something giving way, and she came down, but not without her adverbial, and in but a moment she had to take hold of the edge of the casing around the scudly hole, and her with all her vocal powers called for help. It looked for a while that she would have to "drop," and all the mischievous tricks of early girlhood fitted through her brain and as she was about to say: "Please forgive me for all of these," that husband of hers came to her relief with means that rescued her. Her arms, and the extremities of her lower extremities, however, were somewhat bruised. My, but wasn't she "scared."

—Election Notice. Notice is hereby given that there will be an annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens' bank of Oregon, Missouri, held at the office of the Citizens' bank in Oregon, Missouri, on Saturday, February 16, 1901, at 9 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing officers and directors for the ensuing year and transacting any and all business that may come before said meeting.

DANIEL ZACHMAN, Secy. of Board.

—Lookout for the smallpox.

—Flour is down in price and up in quality at Moore & Kreek's.

—You can't beat Moore & Kreek's prices on Candies, Fruits, or Nuts for the Holidays.

—Miss Anna Curtis is taking a business course in the St. Joseph commercial college.

—Mixed Candy 5 cents per pound; also better Candy at higher price at Moore & Kreek's.

—Large sales of corn are reported at Forest City and Forbes, the price ranging from 24 to 30 cents.

—Miss Lucia Fitzmorris, of Maryville, is being most hospitably entertained by her friends in the Blair district.

—Miss Nettie Cook has returned from Mound City, where she made an extended visit with relatives and friends.

—Mrs. J. A. Price and Mrs. Carl Christensen are visiting relatives and friends in Fairfax and Tarkio.

—M. J. Stephenson and wife, of Thurman, Iowa, were here during the sickness and death of his brother, Uncle Johnny Stephenson.

—We are sorry to learn that Grandmother Hildebrand had three ribs broken, Sunday of last week, 6th inst. by being thrown from a buggy.

—Jehu Lamb was summoned by telegram, on Saturday last, to the bedside of his son Harry, who is seriously ill with pneumonia at Clinton, Arizona.

—Ucle Jimmie Bradford, of Clay township, who is now about 77 years of age, was at ending creek last week. We were glad indeed to see him looking so well and healthy.
